Stylish gift ideas for Christmas at Passionata

Want to buy the special woman in your life a Christmas or birthday gift that will bring her joy long after the occasion has passed?

Then why not treat her to a styling consultation with Rose Lally, a professional image and fashion stylist who provides her services from a delightful Boudoir Salon within Birkenhead shop Passionata?

Services offered by Rose include body shape and colour analysis, wardrobe planning, personal shopping, style development and complete makeover programmes.

By working with a professional image and fashion stylist like Rose, you'll discover how to dress with confidence in clothes that flatter your figure and colouring.

"Fashion can be a confusing terrain, especially when you hit one of the big '0' birthdays and my aim is to help women feel confident and stylish in what they wear," she says.

Book a session with Rose and you'll enjoy 10 percent off all clothing and accessories at Passionata, while clients who book before Christmas will also be treated to a strand of Czechoslovakia pearls to the value of $50 free!

At Passionata, Rose and store owner Shannon Chester are always happy to be of service, even if your request is as simple as finding a new scarf to help freshen up an outfit.

Passionata also has loads of other great gift ideas in store including charming accessories, collectibles and beauty products, as well as elegant Christmas decorations.

To arrange a gift certificate phone 480-9709, visit www.passionata.co.nz or call into the store which is located at 215 Hinemoa St, Birkenhead
